

Virginia Apples Search

FACT: All 50 states grow apples. Virginia is the 6th largest state that produces apples for consumption.

Listed below are the names of apples grown in Virginia. Take a trip to the grocery store or stores and see how many Virginia varieties you can find. Check them off when you find them. Purchase a few and then take them home. Write down words to describe each apple. Remember to use all of your senses when describing each .

Name	Found in Store	Description
Fuji
Gala
Golden Delicious
Ginger Gold
Granny Smith
Johnathan
Red Delicious
Rome
Winesap
Stayman
York Imperial

Taste them and choose your favorite. Write down why this variety is your favorite one and why.
